

Investment Forum Program for Wednesday, May 13 at 11:30

Future Meeting Schedule

This will be the final meeting of the OLLI Spring Program. The next meeting of the forum will be on Wednesday, June 3 at 10:00. The first meeting of the forum for the OLLI Summer Program will be on June 24 at 11:30.

This Week's Program

This week the forum will try something new, different and exciting: Show and Tell. Tom will be occupied on Tuesday with the class on An Introduction to Investing for Retirees and there will be no prepared program for the forum. It will be a free-form open discussion.

You are invited to bring something to share with the group. You may bring pictures of grandchildren, but other topics would probably be of greater interest. It could be an attractive investment, an investment to avoid, a valuable learning experience, a question, or whatever moves the spirit.

Please give consideration to bringing written material that you have found to be of value; research reports, Internet downloads, newsletters, etc.

You may offer comments from your seat or you may take the floor before the group.
