

Investment Forum Program for Wednesday, September 22 at 11:45

Welcome to New Members

This meeting marks the beginning the OLLI Fall Program and new members will be offered a special welcome.

This Week's Discussion

The Forum will attempt something a bit different from the usual format for this session and start the new season by discussing some basic strategies and tactics that may be worth revisiting in the context of recent events. The topics will include:

- Buy and hold
- Value investing
- Growth at a reasonable price
- Momentum investing
- Market timing
- Dollar cost averaging
- Stop loss orders and/or limit orders
- Covered calls for income
